LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

ALTOONA, Oct. 14, 1867. Friend Mac.—We have met the sheep and the wool is ours. Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!

Light off to Salt River they would steer. Oh what a grand and glorious sight it is to see the night uprising of a free and independent people against the tyranny and oppression more humiliating than the despotism of Russia or Hayti!

They have spoken in tones that cannot be misunderstood. They have said to the Rump Congress and its satellites, to the blasphemous defamer, Stevens, to the arrogant Dog Forney, and to the blistering General of seventy-six battles, (on paper,) who unfortunately occupies the chair once adorned and dignified by a Porter, a Bigler, a Packard, a Shunk, and others, that they would go in the work of treason and destruction, and further, this party, that was born in corruption, nurtured in treason, and lived in calumny, died of mortification on the 8th day of October, A. D. 1867, and may we not cherish the hope that it is killed so dead that the thunders of resurrection will never revive it again to pollute the free air of heaven with its pestilential poison.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who to himself hath said, "D—n the Republican party?" We reduced the Radical majority in this county nearly 800. I attribute this gratifying result to the able, energetic and persevering labors of the Chairman of our County Committee, James Lowther, Esq., who is a general, clever fellow, and a first class politician. That the "pop" of the creation, Logan township, did wonders. They made Democrats there by a mechanical process, and this is the way it was done: A truly "old" gentleman met many miles from here is building a warehouse in said township, and the contractor for the excavation is an American citizen of dark complexion, who had in his employ a number of "hill" white men, and these were forbidden to stand or talk during working hours, under penalty of being discharged. They refused to be gagged in this way, and their services were refused. The contractor considered the men sufficient for voting the white man's ticket, and hence the increase.

I can scarcely write, I feel so unspeakably happy over the news. By the way, heard by the tidings from the Backeye State? She, too, has declared in thunder tones that the Union must, and by the Eternal, shall be preserved. The true Union men of that good old State have determined to turn that low, obscene, drunken impostor, Wade, out of the U. S. Senate, and put in his place one like the fearless, incorruptible Vallandigham.

There was quite a ludicrous battle made here on the result of the election, between Samuel Kitt, a Republican, and that sterling Democrat, Samuel Lloyd. Mr. Kitt agreed, if Sharswood was elected, to wheel Mr. Lloyd from the office of the Master Mechanic to his (Mr. Lloyd's) residence, and vice versa. Mr. Kitt made the necessary arrangements for fulfilling his obligation, on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, by appointing several of the main pillars of his party as his aids. Among these was that honest, hard-fisted Republican, Benj. Burley, as chief assistant. Mr. Kitt, master of ceremonies, and Mr. Fox orator for the occasion. The committee of arrangements did their work admirably. They procured a large wheelbarrow, and placed a seat in the center and a banner over it bearing these words: "A poor old Democrat, coming down from Salt River after eight years' residence." On either side was a beautiful flag, and I noticed that not a star was erased nor a stripe obscured on either of them.

Precisely at 5 P. M. all the employees of the shops, the citizens of the town, and the heads of departments, assembled in front of the Master Mechanic's residence and from thence to the place where the ceremony was to be performed. Mr. Fox ascended the platform and delivering a very pertinent speech, after which the aids led their chiefs to their respective positions. Lloyd was soon seated on the barrow with a newspaper in his hands, coming over the election returns, while Mr. Kitt took his place in shafts, the signal was given, the hand struck up, and "Rogue's March" the procession moved off, and amidst the yell and cheers of the people, the march was accomplished. This was probably the most amusing bet of the season. Yours, &c., T. I. M.

JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 14, 1867. Dear Freeman.—The election passed off very quietly in this locality, but nevertheless the party leaders on both sides made a very determined fight. The result shows large Democratic gains in a majority of districts, and in several of the wards an unprecedented change from last year's vote. The principal interest here was centered in the candidates for Sheriff and Poor House Director, and Messrs. Blair and Thoms displayed their popularity by receiving the largest majority on the ticket. The losing candidates bear their defeat philosophically, although I suppose their confidence in human nature has doubtless fallen considerably since the election. Quite a good joke, in connection with one of the candidates, came off the night after the election. One of the aspirants had loaned his horse during election day to an enthusiastic individual, who made his appearance every few hours, with the gratifying information that the horse "was in" in his stable. When the vote was counted a gain of only six voters was discovered for the owner of the horse. Whilst our gallant friend was animating in rather severe terms on the course pursued by the hero who was "rolling in" the votes, an Irishman in the crowd inquired, "And did you get your horse back?" "Yes, the horse has been brought back," was the answer. "Then, under the circumstances, may he be dom'd glad you got him?" returned our Hibernian friend.

Reliable returns from the State came in slowly, and it was not until Saturday that the Republicans acknowledged the defeat of Williams, whilst the Democracy were pretty generally sanguine from the first that Sharswood had been elected. On Saturday evening police business was brisk—no less than five cases having been lodged in the stone house. Two of the cases had been mixed up in a free fight at a public house on Canal Street, and from the appearance of their physiognomies, had suffered severely in the engagement. Another individual who was "on the wing" induced by over indulgence in the flowing bowl, was cabbaged and cribbed for getting obstreperous. Two shovers of counterfeit money, whose names are said to be John B. Wright and George B. Waters, paid our town a flying visit on Saturday, and left several tokens of remembrance in the shape of $10 counterfeit National notes on a Philadelphia bank. They captured their operations solely to beer saloons, and probably shovled $150 in the various saloons of town. Their mode of operation was to enter a beer shop, drink a glass of beer, throw down a $10 bill and receive $9.90 good money in change. Burgess Kopelin telegraphed to Pittsburgh, and the two scamps were arrested by the depot police in a sleeping car, at an early hour yesterday morning, and placed in duress vile. Burgess Kopelin has gone to the city, and the two worthies will have a hearing there, and will doubtless be committed for trial.

The foreman of a shack shop at Nineveh station on the Pa. R. R., named Keller, a resident of Bedford county, while attempting to get on a freight train for the purpose of coming to this place, fell upon the track, and just at the moment the Cincinnati Express came along from the east, at lightning speed, and struck the poor fellow in the back, mangling him in a shocking manner, and killing him instantly. Rev. B. L. Agnew has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in this place, which he has held for the last ten years. Capt. Jas. H. Gageby, U. S. A., returned home last week on a brief furlough. Everybody in this section likes the Captain, and as he represents the county with honor and our town with credit, we are always proud to welcome him in his "pop" visits. May he ere long sport the "eagle."

As you will have plenty of material with which to regale the majority of your readers, I will stop short for this week. SEC BAL.

THE MERMAL TICKET.—We are disposed to hand the spurious ticket down to immortality. Here it is in all its beauties. As soon as Rupert saw it he gave it the name of the "Mermal Ticket," his reason being that it was lovely as a virgin at the head, but very jolly towards the tail: Judge of Supreme Court—George Sharswood. Assembly—John P. Linton. Sheriff—Richard Rickman. Commissioner—Francis Flanagan. Treasurer—William McDermitt. Poor House Director—John S. Ogden. Auditor—One year, Charles Buxton; Three years, Thomas Van Scoyoc. Coroner—George Stineman.

BANNER DISTRICTS OF CAMBRIA.—If any county in the State can beat the following in the number of votes polled we should like to hear of it: Allegheny, Sharswood 179, Williams 21, Cambria 107, " 178, " 14, Carroll, " 268, " 24, Carrolltown, " 76, " 6, Chest, " 112, " 19, Clearfield, " 293, " 10, Lento, " 41, " 7, Munster, " 95, " 10, Washington, " 186, " 28.

BULLY FOR GEORGE.—We are pleased to notice that our young friend, George Yeager, of Altoona, has become the proprietor of a stove, tin and sheet iron ware establishment in that place. If George meets with half the encouragement his industry and fine social qualities entitle him to, he cannot fail to prosper, and we wish him every success. We heartily to the liberal patronage of our friends in that bailiwick. Now, George, don't forget to send our boy a tin whistle or a "stool" horn.

Don't forget, as you move along through life, that fortunes are made by living within your means and saving all you can, and if you don't forget this you won't forget to buy your goods at the cheap store of H. A. Shoemaker & Co. Harry keeps nearly everything you want, keeps, and never permits himself to be undersold.

ALWAYS BEHIND.—It is no evidence of enterprise for a man to be behind in anything, but when we see a merchant almost constantly behind his counter dealing out the encouragement his industry and fine social qualities entitle him to, he cannot fail to prosper, and we wish him every success. We heartily to the liberal patronage of our friends in that bailiwick. Now, George, don't forget to send our boy a tin whistle or a "stool" horn.

FILLING UP.—We peeped into Cham. Roberts' clock, watch, jewelry and notion establishment the other day, and found that the long row of shelves which occupy the new addition to his store room are being filled with a varied assortment of choice goods. If you want what Cham. has he is the right man to buy from.

OUR WIFE ONE DAY A SHOPPING WENT, as wives will sometimes do, but for the little money spent we were surprised to view the pile of goods which from her arms into our own she gave us, and with a smile which always charms, she whispered, "Mills & Davis, Store on Main street, adjoining Post Office. Attest—JAMES MYERS, Sheriff. Oct. 17, 1867.

THEY HAVE COME!—What has come? Why the fine new stock of goods which we told our readers Mr. V. S. Barker, on Main street, designed to supply his customers with this fall and winter. The assortment is really a handsome one, and the prices are down to the lowest notch. Go and see them.

ST. JAMES' HOTEL.—To any of our friends visiting the Smoky City we cordially recommend the St. James as a hotel where the very best accommodations are offered, and where a gentlemanly and obliging landlord is always to be found at his post.

PAY UP.—Mr. Hugh A. McCoy desires us to say to all persons indebted to him for harness, saddles, or work of any kind, that he is much in need of money at the present time, and hopes that they will call and settle their accounts without delay.

INFORMATION.—Information guaranteed to produce a luxuriant growth of hair upon a bald head or beardless face; also, a recipe for the removal of Pimples, Blisters, Eruptions, &c., on the skin, leaving the same soft, clear and beautiful, can be obtained without charge by addressing THOS. F. CHAPMAN, Chemist, 823 Broadway, New York.

DR. J. H. JORDAN, Indianapolis, Indiana, says: "I have known Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy to be thoroughly tested in numerous cases during the past year, and with perfect success in every instance. And so it is with his Remedy for Diarrhoea or Cholera, and his Cough Balsam. They are all genuine and pure."

THE advertisement of our book-binder friends, Messrs. Geis & Renth of Johnstown, has been unavoidably crowded out of our columns this week. We shall give it a place and have something to say about it in our next issue.

THE RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD.—Extract of a Letter from Baron Solomon Rothschild.—PARIS, 8th April, 1864. Rue Faubv, St. Honore.—Will you be kind enough to have forwarded to me here 200 bottles of your Indian Liniment; if you will send at the same time the account, I will forward you the amount through Messrs. Belmont & Co., New York. Baron Solomon Rothschild having recommended to many of his friends Major LANE'S LINIMENT, and they being desirous to procure it, he should advise him to establish a depot in Paris.

THE INDIAN LINIMENT. As a relief, ever ready; as a killer of pain, taken inwardly, or outwardly applied, has no equal. For the relief and cure of Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, Sprains, Bruises, &c., it is unequalled. It is also most efficacious, taken inwardly, in the cure of Cholera, Dysentery and Fever in the Stomach, Diarrhoea, Trichinosis, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, &c., and is without exception the most wonderful Panacea the world affords. NO FAMILY should be without it. Every TRAVELER by land or sea should have a bottle. MINERS and FARMERS residing at a distance from physicians should keep it constantly on hand. In case of Accidents and sudden attacks of Stomach Complaints, its value cannot be estimated. Inquire for Major LANE'S INDIAN LINIMENT, and take no other. PRICE 50 Cents per bottle. For sale at wholesale and retail by Demas Barnes & Co., 21 Park Row, N. Y.; Gale & Robinson, 186 Greenwicht-st., N. Y.; P. C. Wells & Co., 132 Fulton-st., N. Y.; Chas. N. Crittenden, 183 6th Ave., N. Y., and by respectable Druggists throughout the world. None genuine unless signed by JOHN TANE, LANE, and countersigned by J. T. LANE & CO., Proprietors, 163 Broadway, N. Y. Send for circular.
